Dear Col. Edwards:

Reference is made to your letter of September 10, 1952, concerning the suggestions of the ICIS Subcommittee on E.O. 10290 transmitted in my letter of June 12, 1952, relative to CIA regulations for the security of documents classified under the Executive Order.

I wish to advise you that the provisions in the CIA regulations which you outline in your letter and the explanation regarding classification guides constitute satisfactory answers to the subcommittee's suggestions.

As indicated in my letter of June 12, 1952, in the subcommittee's opinion, the CIA regulations are in conformance with the Executive Order.

Your cooperation is greatly appreciated.
